

fire

you just live in your own small prison pointing fingers on everyone foreign culture and unknown faces just empower your deep disgust you can't run, you can't hide your horizon never sets a sun we will hunt, we will fight - you'll feel fire this is why you'll get the fire this is why you'll burn in hell fire - burning your bible - fire fire - crushing your world - fire face of fear

there is a constant war raging inside a part of me that can't make compromise, fool!
and never will they fade away, loosing faith burning eyes a daze, behold - I bear a face of fear not knowing where to turn my head acting suspicious out of anguish and demise this is not me - it's who you want to see, bending myself a maze, begun - I show no face of fear fear - a feel of monstrosity inbred to challenge what's me feeding of guilt and of shame and now it's time to bleed i've had enough of false suspect laid all to your feet but still you kick on my head it took a while to see quite clear what you took from me a parting, redempt - i killed that face of fear a.b.r.f.t.s.

bloodshed everywhere - run for shelter hide your marks we didn't start that war - but we'll end it soon feed that phobia - be that phobia slaughter in the streets - punished for your beliefs friends turn into traitors, encircling - you're much stronger

as blood rains from the sky we will rise - growing strong inside and in our shining light you will die - raining from the sky bloodshed stopped right here - no change without a struggle all those traitors disappeared - time to start all over pain

never break my will always standing bold and strong never break that oath ever will I be a warrior with eyes of fire and the power to believe those eyes of fire - this everlasting pain...never meant to feel pain...never seems to heal slowly bursting shell weakened by all of the treatment but I won't give up ever will I be a winner

we are deaf

born out of chaos forged of flame and iron we never saw it coming - a stream of no return rage into my freedom - never will I come back be sure I feel redemption and we will meet again refuse/resist, orgasmatron, paranoid & phobia ausgebombter holy diver keep on rotting - child in time my girlfriend's girlfriend - punishment nazi-punks fuck off!

peace sells the mouth for war we're all deaf - deaf forever

walk the mass

when you fail and suck in life don't you ever search for a reason why the answer lies right here it can be just one others' fault

everything that you don't know must be wrong because you said so never want to progress yourself excutions are so good to learn i feel like losing hope all is gone

no control
no one cares
all pretend brain erased

feed the forces

born into a world so cold and stiff never dreamed of life to be like this did you ever make a mark yourself or did you follow just like everyone else?

never know - feed the forces visions of your past gone with the wind are you shure that you were really there is it just a planted memory or did they ever really care at all?

did you ever believe in me?
reality lost - so hard to breathe private greed

where have all good intentions gone?
washed away by green floods away, astray, they go an egoistic wreck

no one here to tape your wounds no where left to rest your head time is precious, but you're the opposite of overdue where's the sense of this now?

private greed - does not pay for you maze

this never ending maze
flowing through a hollow world we are meant to only meet in death as we drift apart now I wish you well

you were ripped out of our lives we are doomed to never feel again until one day we'll meet again it never goes away - divided so grim to never see again...forever

we are meant to never meet again as you disappear a scar is left in us we will never meet again - we will ever feel that pain
